

Corey Alexander

e-mail: fcfa77@yahoo.com

webpage: <http://www.coreyalexander.net/>

myspace: <http://www.myspace.com/coreyalexandercomedy>

facebook: www.facebook.com/coreycomedy

Comedian/Writer/Improv/Actor

Corey Alexander's ascent through the comedy world is a testament to his hard work and dedication over many years. Raised in Philadelphia, Corey has taken his act countrywide to a multitude of clubs including Carolines, Comix, Gotham, Funny Bone, Catch a Rising Star, Comedy Zone, Comedy Works, and many more.

Recently asked to perform as part of NYC Comix's "Best of New Talent" as well as 2009 winner of Comedy Cabaret's Stand-up Contest, Corey is recognized by his complaints of not being married (you read that correctly) and his ability to interact with the audience. He's been seen on MiND TV, Fox Good Morning, and CBS Sports Zone. Also, Corey has been heard on morning shows WMMR, WBUS, WIP, WZZO, Cool 100.

Corey has also shared the stage with some of today's stars, like Mitch Fatel (The Tonight Show), Kevin Brennan ("Best Comedian" Aspen Comedy Festival, HBO), and Tommy Davidson ("In Living Color"). Additionally, Corey has won three stand-up contests and is featured with Comcast On Demand.

Corey has also taken his act from the clubs to the private shows. He's performed at high schools, colleges, social clubs, country clubs, and large corporate shows. Corey is currently writing several film and TV pilots (Wallach Media; Cut 'N Productions; 3 Heads Production Group), and just starred in "Who is Jose Luck", an indie movie premiering in 2011. Keep an eye out for him!!